PROGRAM DETAILS FOR 2010

Dates: July 17th – 23rd, 2010

The South Carolina Commissioner's School for Agriculture (SCCSA) provides challenging and enriching college-based experiences for a limited number of rising 11th and 12th grade students. Each college-based program provides an academically focused curriculum that integrates subject matter from a variety of related disciplines with the overall theme of agriculture and natural resources.

MISSION

SCCSA is a premiere career and leadership development summer program. This program is designed to inform, inspire and challenge student participants to consider a career in the agricultural, natural resource and life science industries as well as to be model citizens of leadership and influence for these industries as they embrace an agriculturalist philosophy.

Academic Programs May Include:

- Animal & Veterinary Sciences
- Forestry, Wildlife & Environmental Sciences
- Horticulture, Turfgrass & Soil Science

Additional Programming May Include:

- AgriBusiness & Policy
- Alternative Fuels
- Organic Food Production
- Clemson Admissions & Financial Aid

South Carolina Commissioner's School for Agriculture

ELIGIBILITY

No exceptions are made to these requirements

- Currently a high school student in 10th or 11th grade. Must be on track to enter 11th or 12th grade.
- Home schooled students are eligible.
- Genuine interest in pursuing a college degree related to agriculture and natural resources.
- Must not have previously attended the South Carolina Commissioner's School for Agriculture.
- Must submit a completed application form and all related materials by the deadlines.

COST

A non-refundable tuition deposit of $50 is required upon acceptance. This deposit is credited toward total tuition costs. Please do not send this money with the application.

South Carolina residents $375

Out-of-State residents $600

Through private funding and donations, the cost to South Carolina students has been kept to a minimum. Each student must provide his or her own spending money as well as transportation to and from Clemson University. All program participants are housed on the Clemson campus and all meals are provided. In the event a student cannot afford these expenses, we encourage students to find local sponsors. Applicants can also submit a letter to the program director requesting funding assistance.

APPLICATION DEADLINE AND NOTIFICATION

Postmark Deadline

Completed applications are due postmarked by May 3rd, 2010 or earlier. The application must be completed and all components must be received, according to the enclosed directions and mailed by the applicant. Applications must be postmarked by May 3rd, 2010 and received no later than May 10th, 2010 at 4:00pm to be considered. Applications received with a postmark later than May 3rd, 2010 or received in the office after May 10th, 2010 will be immediately disqualified for lateness.

WARNING → Certified, registered or first-class mail is subject to delays. If waiting until the deadline to submit, please ensure prompt delivery.

Notification

Applications are reviewed by a selection committee. Approximately 30 students will be chosen to participate and emphasis is placed on students who desire to pursue studies or a career in the agriculture and natural resource industries. Once the selection process is complete, the student can expect to receive a letter announcing the decision in June.

The South Carolina Commissioner's School for Agriculture is not responsible for lost, incomplete or delayed applications, or for those sent to incorrect addresses. The program committee cannot respond to requests for advance notification, individual assessments or appeals.

This application form expires May 3rd, 2010 and may not be submitted after that date.
